Itinerary

Day 1 Arrive in Tokyo

You will be welcomed at Tokyo's Narita Airport by a Samurai Tours representative who will help you with your rail pass exchange, obtain your limousine bus ticket into Tokyo, and assist with boarding the bus to your hotel in Tokyo.

Travel: 1-1/2 Hours

Day 2 Tokyo - Tokyo Tower, Ginza, Asakusa

After breakfast, the licensed, English-speaking guide will meet you in the lobby of your accommodations. The guided tour will start with traveling to Tokyo Tower. The Tokyo Tower is a communications and observation tower in the center of Tokyo. At 332.9 metres (1,092 ft), it is the second-tallest structure in Japan. The structure is an Eiffel Tower-inspired lattice tower with a main observatory at 150 meters that is reached via elevator or a 600-step staircase. Thanks to the tower's central location, the observatory offers an interesting view of the city despite being only at a relatively moderate height. Afterwards we will travel to the famous Ginza district, the most expensive real estate in the world. Ginza is recognized by many as one of the most luxurious shopping districts in the world, attracting visitors and regulars alike from across the globe. Before continuing we will first stop for a lunch of Kushiage (fried meat and vegetables on bamboo skewers). Next we will travel to the nearby Asakusa area. Here we will tour the Nakamise-dori, Senso-ji Buddhist Temple and the Asakusa Shrine where you will learn about Buddhist and Shinto Japanese religious practices. We will return to the hotel where we will go through the train tickets for the rest of the tour. Breakfast at the hotel and lunch at a local restaurant included.

Travel: 1 1/2 Hours; Walking: Heavy

Day 3 Tokyo, Nikko

You have the option to continue touring Tokyo, or travel to the mountain town of Nikko on your own using your JR Rail Pass. You will travel to Nikko by Shinkansen (bullet train) and express train where the Toshogu Shrine is located. This shrine – built by Tokugawa Iemitsu – is a dedication to his grandfather, Shogun Tokugawa Ieyasu (James Clavell's fictional Shogun in his novel Shogun was based on this person). It is one of the most elaborate monuments in Japan, as no expense was spared in this shrine's construction. You can also visit Rinnoji, Toshogu and Taiyuin before returning to Tokyo for the night.

Travel: TBD

Day 4 Travel to Magome; Tour Magome

Today you will be traveling by Shinkansen (bullet train), express train, and bus to the city of Magome. Magome and Tsumago were once major stops on the Nakasendo, a major highway through the Japan Alps built in the late 16th century. After the Tokkaido Highway was built in the early 17th century near the coast, Magome, Tsumago and the other towns along this highway became ghost towns. Tremendous efforts have been made recently to rebuild the memory and feel of these old settlements. After arriving in Magome, you will be free to explore. We would suggest touring the Toson Memorial Museum which documents the life of the writer Shimazaki Toson who became well-known in Japan writing about the city of Magome.

Day 5 Walk to Tsumago; Tour Tsumago

After breakfast at the ryokan, you can have your overnight bags delivered from Magome to Tsumago (you will walk with day bags only), and then walk the 5 miles from Magome to Tsumago along the route of the old Nakasendo Highway. The old highway winds through quaint neighborhoods, old forests, and along mountain streams and waterfalls as it makes its way to the historic city of Tsumago. There are even sections of the original highway still remaining. (For those who are unable to walk this far, you can take the bus either from Magome to Tsumago, or there is a bus available from the half-way point of the walk to Tsumago). All of the electrical and utility lines have been removed and placed underground in Tsumago causing you to feel like you truly stepped into 17th-century Japan. Tsumago is also often used for filming period movies and television shows, revealing the unique beauty that it portrays. We suggest touring the Wakihonjin Okuya where the retainers of the feudal lord's party would stay, and the Honjin, where the feudal lords would stay..

Travel: N/A

Day 6 Jigokudani Snow Monkey Park; Travel to Takayama

Today you will travel by express train and bus to Jigokudani Monkey Park where you will delight in the famous "snow monkeys" of Japan. These monkeys are world-famous for using the hot springs baths located in and around Yukanaka Onsen. The Red-Faced "snow monkeys" are only found in Japan, and during the winter the monkeys enjoy using the baths to stay warm, just like people. In the afternoon you will travel by bus, Shinkansen, and express train to Takayama.

Travel: 6 1/2 Hours

Day 7 Tour Takayama

We recommend starting the morning at the farmers market strolling past the vegetable stands and stalls selling herbs, pickles, and souvenirs, sampling the numerous options as you go. In the afternoon, the choices for what to do are abundant. You can explore the Takayama Jinya, visit the many temples, see numerous shrines and museums, rummage through antique shops, or relax at one of sake breweries. You may also take the bus to the Hida-no-Sato Open Air Museum with its traditional, thatched-roof homes from the surrounding area, or visit the Yatai Kaikan, a museum chronicling the famous festival held every April and October in Takayama. Breakfast at the hotel is included.

Day 8 Travel to Shirakawago; Tour Shirakawago; Travel to Kanazawa

Today you will travel by bus to Shirakawa-go, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. A number of "gassho-zukuri" style homes have been relocated to Shirakawa-go from surrounding locations. "Gassho-zukuri" literally translates to "praying hands home", and is a fitting description of these thatched-roof A-frame style homes which are well-suited for the large amounts of snow this area of Japan receives. We suggest visiting the Shirakawa-go Open Air Museum where you can get a glimpse into the hard lives of 18th century Japanese farmers. You may also want to visit the observation area where you will have a chance to view Shirakawa-go from above. Later in the afternoon you will travel by bus to the city of Kanazawa.

Travel: 2 1/2 Hours

Day 9 Tour Kanazawa

We suggest beginning the day touring the Kenrokuen Garden. This garden is considered to be one of the three best gardens in Japan and was initially constructed in the 17th century. After enjoying the garden, you can tour the Kanazawa Handicrafts Museum to learn how the local Kanazawa handicrafts are made, and then explore the Nagamachi District. This is where the Samurai who worked at the nearby Kanazawa lived. At the Nagamachi District, you can tour the Nomura House. The Nomura Family was a high-ranking retainer for the Maeda Family, the feudal lord family who ruled Kanazawa and the surrounding area during the Edo Period.

Day 10 Travel to Koyasan

You will board an express train and Shinkansen bound for Osaka, and continue on to Koya-san by train and funicular. Koya-san is the world headquarters of the Shingon school of Esoteric Buddhism. Kobo Daishi, considered by many to be the most influential religious person in Japanese history, established a religious community here in the year 816. After checking into your shukubo (Buddhist temple lodging), you are free to roam and visit one of the 110 temples in the area, wander through the nearby ghostly cemetery at the famous Okuno-in temple, or just rest in the garden at the shukubo. Your dinner of shojin-ryori (traditional Buddhist vegetarian cuisine – no meat, fish, onions or garlic) will be served.

Travel: 7 Hours

Day 11 Tour Koyasan; Travel to Osaka

Very early in the morning, you can attend o-inori (Buddhist prayer services). After the prayer service, a shojin-ryori breakfast is served. Following breakfast you can tour the Garan and Kongobu-ji Temples, or wander through the huge cemetery leading up to the Okuno-in temple where Kobo Daishi is buried. Many Japanese still believe that Kobo Daishi is not dead, but merely in a very advanced state of meditation, waiting to awaken at the appropriate time. In the afternoon, you will travel by funicular and train back to the city of Osaka. In the evening, you can enjoy the famous South Osaka entertainment districts of Dotombori, Shin-Sekai and Namba.

Travel: 2 Hours

Day 12 Travel to Himeji; Tour Himeji; Travel to Miyajima Island

On your way from Osaka to Miyajima, you will tour the Himeji Castle, a significant piece of architecture from the Feudal Period, built in 1333. In the afternoon, you will travel by Shinkansen to Hiroshima, then by local train and ferry to Miyajima Island.

Travel: 3 Hours

Day 13 Tour Miyajima Island

Miyajima Island is considered by the Japanese to be one of the three most beautiful spots in Japan. You can ride the cable car to the top of the mountain, visit the Itsukushima-jinja shrine which was built in its present form in 1168, or just take in the beauty and ambiance of Miyajima Island while enjoying grilled oysters, the island's specialty.

Day 14 Travel to Hiroshima; Tour Hiroshima; Travel to Kyoto

In the morning you will take the ferry back to the mainland, then a local train to Hiroshima. There you can tour the Peace Memorial Museum and the Peace Memorial Park, both sobering testaments to the dropping of the A-bomb on August 6, 1945. In the afternoon, you will travel by Shinkansen (bullet train) to the city of Kyoto. For many, just the name of Kyoto conjures up the classic images of Japan: streets of traditional wooden houses, the click-clack of geta (wooden sandals) on the paving stones, geisha in a flourish of brightly colored silks, and a tea master deliberately warming water and making tea.

Travel: 3 Hours

Day 15 Tour Kyoto

Free day to explore Kyoto on your own.

Travel: N/A

Day 16 Tour Kyoto

Tour Kyoto on your own.

Travel: N/A

Day 17 Return Home

It's time to say "sayonara" (goodbye) to Japan. You will take the express train to the Kansai International Airport just outside Osaka for your flight back home (if you are flying out of Narita Airport, be sure to schedule a flight after 15:00).

Travel: 1 1/2 to 4 Hours
